

ITALIAN PROBLEM MAY BE SETTLED TODAY

ITALY'S ENVOYS SHOW EVIDENCE OF CONCESSIONS

No Further Notes Are Received from the Enemy Delegates.

SOLUTION SEEMS NEAR.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, May 13.—The Italian problem seemed nearer solution when today's conference began among the allied representatives here and it was thought probable that a basis of understanding would be reached during the day.
The Italian representatives are reported to be evidencing more of a willingness to make concessions.
The discussions of the day began when Premier Orlando called this forenoon upon Colonel E. M. House of the American delegation.
The council of four held no meeting during the morning. No further communications had been received from the German representatives at Versailles and the experts to whom the last notes from Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau had been referred had not yet reported. No meeting of the council being considered necessary, therefore, President Wilson and the allied premiers devoted the forenoon to individual work.
This afternoon President Wilson will receive Thomas Nelson Page, the American ambassador to Italy in connection with the Italian question.
The Italian representatives have resumed complete participation in the pending peace negotiations by appointing a member of the liaison committee controlling all communications with the German delegation. This commission has hitherto been composed only of British, French and American representatives.

DAVIES RETURNS FEE TAKEN FROM PACKING CONCERN

Judge Landis Now Has Additional $7,500
for Investors.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, May 13.—The fee of $7,500 which Joseph E. Davies, former member of the federal trade commission and democratic candidate for United States senator at the latest election in Wisconsin, received from the Consumers' Packing company, was returned to the concern in United States district court here today. The money was turned in to Judge Landis by Joseph McNab, attorney for Mr. Davies. It was paid for legal services in August, 1918, when the defunct concern was seeking a capital issues permit which, however, was not obtained at that time.
Mr. Davies had been invited several times by Judge Landis to appear and refund the fee while the investigation of the company's affairs was in full swing. About eight weeks ago his attorneys entered an appearance for him but they stated that they would turn in the fee only provided Judge Landis absolved their client from any knowledge of the "wild cat" aspects of the company's organization. Today, however, Mr. McNab said the money had been turned in "without a string tied to it."
John H. Haskell, former chief salesman of the company, was arrested on a warrant charging fraudulent use of the mails. He had been held to the grand jury under a $30,000 bond several weeks ago but the warrant was returned marked "not found." Today he testified in the hearings and was arrested as he left the stand.

Tried, Convicted, to Prison in 4 Hours

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, May 13.—Criminal court attaches are asserting today that justice in that branch of Chicago's legal procedure is "not so slow after all," pointing to the case of William Stamler, tried, convicted and sent to prison in four hours for holding up a storekeeper. At 10 o'clock his case was called, at 12 it was in the hands of a jury, at 2 he was found guilty, at 2:05 a motion for a new trial was denied, and at 2:10 Stamler was on the way to Joliet prison.

CONSTABULARY BILL BITTERLY ASSAILED IN ILLINOIS SENATE

Dunlap Measure Comes Up as Special Order of Business Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., May 13.—Lines were being drawn in the senate today for a vote on the Dunlap state police bill which has been fought by organized labor since its introduction in January. The measure is a "special order" for today.
The constabulary bill would create from three to seven troops of mounted police who would be charged with the duty of aiding local authorities to maintain the peace and enforce the criminal law. They would patrol rural highways and in emergencies be subject to strike duty on call or approval of the governor.
A state police commissioner, named by the governor, would be the chief constabulary officer, at a salary of $5,000 a year.

Dunlap Speaks For It.
When the constabulary bill was called up, Senator Dunlap began a long speech in its behalf.
"Attacking the hostile attitude of organized labor, he asked who were the men opposing the measure in the name of labor."
"They are the so-called labor leaders," he declared, and added: "It would be a wise thing if labor organizations would elect to leadership conservative men instead of the men who have made speeches against the bill."
Farmers Want Measure.
Senator Dunlap, who is a farmer, said the agricultural population of the state wanted the measure passed, and cited the situation in North Dakota where, he declared, the farmers got what they wanted.

"The farmers of Illinois are not trying to organize a political party," he said, "but in 65 counties they are pretty well organized and in the others they are pretty well informed. They are asking a roll call on this bill."
The constabulary, the senator stated, would cost about five and a half cents annually per capita, and would offer protection against bank robbers, hold-ups and murderers. He referred to Pennsylvania as the best example of the operation of a state police force.

R. rooms and at which time it will be determined whether the men wish to attend the exercises as a unit, and if so, to take necessary arrangements.

GUILTY AUSTRIAN LEADERS WILL BE TRIED BY ALLIES

Responsibility Clause to Be Inserted in Peace Pact.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Monday, May 12.—(Delayed)—The Hungarian government has not yet accepted the invitation to name delegates for the signing of the peace treaty but it is assumed here that the Bela Kun regime will gladly take advantage of this means of establishing relations with the outside world.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, May 12.—(Delayed)—In the peace treaty with Austria, now well toward completion, a responsibility clause has been inserted identical with that in the German treaty with the exception that the first clause, providing for the trial of former Emperor is omitted. The remaining clause makes provision for the trials of military offenders by an international court martial.

The frontier delimitation of the new Austria presents the one serious issue in the drawing of the treaty, somewhat similar to that of the Sarre valley in the German treaty. This is as regards the lower Tyrol, a section of which is detached from Austria and placed within the boundaries of Italy. It includes the cities of Bogen and Meran, and an estimated German population of about 250,000.

Italy Gets Protection
The reason for attaching this German speaking population to Italy is the establishment of a strategic frontier giving Italy adequate protection from invasion from the south. The old frontier ran south of the Alps, with Italy on the downgrade and Austria on the commanding heights. The new frontier reverses this, giving Italy the heights and all defensive passages. The former status gave Austria seven lines of approach, while Italy possessed only one main line for mobilizing its defenses. The new status places all these lines of approach under Italy.
As has been stated, the frontier line as drawn in the terms to be presented to the Austrians is the one laid down by the treaty of London, although the treaty makes no mention of this fact. Italy sought this line as a permanent strategic defense, secured its insertion in the armistice terms and now secures its incorporation in the treaty.

STRONG WINDS IN MID-OCEAN HALT OVER-SEA FLIGHT

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Trepassey, N. F., May 13.—Reports of high seas in mid-ocean, with easterly winds over the western half of the American navy's trans-Atlantic flight route made it highly improbable that the seaplanes NC-1 and NC-3 would take the air today for the Azores. In this vicinity wind and visibility conditions were poor but weather observers declared the prospects for tomorrow, both off the coast and at sea were "the best for some time."

NC-4 STILL HELD UP

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chatham, Mass., May 13.—Weather conditions this morning were still unfavorable for flying and officers at the naval air station here said there was no likelihood that the hydro-airplane NC-4 would resume its trans-Atlantic flight today. The NC-4 which started from Rockaway with the NC-3 and NC-1, now at Trepassey, N. F. was compelled by engine trouble to put in at this station last Friday.

NEXT SENATE TO BE ORGANIZED BY G. O. P. TOMORROW

Fight on Penrose and Warren Will Not Be Brought Up Then.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, May 13.—In arranging today for the organization conference of republican senators tomorrow leaders planned to postpone action on the contest over the proposed election of Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania and Warren of Wyoming, as chairman of the finance and appropriations committee, respectively.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, said only routine business was planned tomorrow. This will include selection of a candidate for president pro tempore of the senate; election of the chairman, secretary and whip authorization of a steering committee and a committee on committees, to be appointed by the chairman, and selection of senate officers, including the secretary and sergeant at arms.

Senator Lodge was said to be without opposition for re-election as the conference chairman and it was expected that Senator Curtis of Kansas would be re-elected whip and Senator Wadsworth of New York secretary.
Choice of a president pro tempore was a subject of numerous conferences today and it appeared probable that the office would go to one of the senators affiliated with those opposing Senators Penrose and Warren.

Differences over the selection of Senators Penrose and Warren as committee chairmen, according to prominent party leaders, will await appointment of the committee on committees and its report at a conference later this week.

Leaders of all groups in the party expressed belief today that with subsequent conferences this week the republicans would be ready to proceed with organization when the senate convenes Monday.

PAMPHLET GIVES HISTORY OF THE PRAIRIE DIVISION

Copies of Story of Its Activities Are Reaching Dixon.

The war history of the 33rd division, the division made up almost entirely of Illinois national guardsmen, including many Dixon and Lee county men is just beginning to reach the city. It is arriving on the incoming mails in the form of a neat little pamphlet, graphically outlining the activities of the division from the time it was trained, as an unnumbered unit, at Camp Logan, from September 1917 to May 1918, up to Nov. 11, 1918—the signing of the armistice. Mothers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts of the men of the 33rd are recipients of the pamphlets.

The war record of the 33rd division is indeed interesting. The complete activities of the unit are detailed in the pamphlet, which carries an introductory note signed in facsimile autograph of Maj. Gen. Bell, the commanding officer.

According to the record the 33rd, upon arrival in France, was sent to the Huppy area, near Abbeville, on June 9, 1918, contingents being sent forward for defensive work near Amiens on June 13. On July 4, four companies participated in the British attack on Hamel. It was the first time in history American troops fought alongside of Australians.

On August 8 a prominent part was played in the big British drive on Mons which resulted in a cracking of the line along the Mons sector and the preparation for the desperate Meuse-Argonne battle, launched September 26.

In line with the receipt of the pamphlet are the news stories received by American press associations, detailing the departure of units of the 33rd, from Brest, the first units to sail for the United States left Brest last Friday and are units of the 33rd, from Brest.

John Young was a business visitor in Chicago yesterday.

GERMANS TO ASK OPPORTUNITY TO MEET AUSTRIANS

Rantzau Wants Chance to Confer During Negotiations.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, May 13.—The heads of the two German democratic parties and the parties of the center have informed Chancellor Scheideemann that their parties will withdraw their representatives from the government in case the cabinet decides to sign the peace treaty, according to a dispatch from Berlin received here by way of Basle.

ASK TO SEE AUSTRIANS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, May 13.—It developed this afternoon that Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, intended to ask permission to send German delegates to receive the Austrian representatives, according to the Havas agency. It has previously been announced that the allies intended to keep the delegations wholly apart.
The German plenipotentiaries were reported today to be preparing a formal request that they be allowed to communicate with the Austrian delegates to the peace congress during the negotiations.

TERMS MUST BE SIGNED

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Monday, May 12.—(Delayed)—"Even if important changes are not made by the negotiations begun at Versailles, there remains no choice but to bow to compulsion and sign the treaty," says an appeal of the central committee of the independent socialist party in the party organ Die Freiheit this morning.
"Not signing," continues the appeal, "means the retention of our prisoners of war, the occupation of our raw material districts, the tightening of the blockade, unemployment, hunger and death en masse. It is the proletariat that would suffer the most terribly from the consequences."
"Peace, as hard and as oppressive as it may be, is a necessary assumption for the possibility of rebuilding our social and economic life in the spirit of the revolutionary proletariat."

SCHIEDEMAN ASSAILS TERMS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Monday, May 12.—(Delayed)—Philipp Scheideemann, the chancellor, in his speech before the national assembly here today said that the occasion was the turning point in the life of the German people, as the assembly was to decide the attitude toward "what our adversaries call peace conditions."

"The representatives of the nation," he continued, "meet here as the last band of the faithful assemblies when the fatherland is in the greatest danger. All have appeared except the representatives of Alsace Lorraine who have been deprived of the right to be represented here just as you are to be deprived of the right to exercise in a free vote the right of self-determination."

Meet for Last Time
"And I want among you the representatives of all the German races and lands, the chosen representatives of the Rhineland, the Sarre, East Prussia, West Prussia, Posen, Silesia, Danzig and Memel. Together with the deputies of the unmenaced regions, I see the deputies of the menaced provinces, who, if the will of our enemies becomes law, are to meet for the last time as Germans amongst Germans. I know I am one in heart with you in the gravity and sanctity of this hour which should be ruled by only one idea—that we belong to one another and must stand by one another and that we are one flesh and one blood and that whoever tries to sever us is driving a murderous knife into the living body of the German people."

No Thirst for Power
"To keep our nation alive—that and nothing else—is our duty. We are pursuing no nationalistic dreams. No questions of prestige and no thirst for power have part in our deliberations. Bare life is what we must have for our land and nation today while everyone feels a throbbing hand at his throat."
"Let me speak without tactical considerations. The thing which is at the basis of our discussion is this thick volume in which 100 sentences begin 'German renounces.' This dreadful and murderous volume by which confession of our own unworthiness, our consent to pitiless disruption, our agreement to helotry and slavery are to be extorted—this book must not become the future code of law."

GOVERNMENT MAY CHANGE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Monday, May 12.—(Delayed)—The possibility of a change in the government of Germany as a result of the presentation of the allied peace terms was discussed by Philipp Scheideemann, German chancellor, at Berlin, today, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from that city. The chancellor denounced the peace terms which he said represented a "brutal, dictated peace," it is said. The statement was made to foreign journalists in the former chancellor's palace and in part follows:
"We thought that we social democrats were strong enough to prevent a peace by violence but doubted whether (Continued on Page 5.)

Activities in Amboy

HOSPITAL WAS THREATENED BY FIRE YESTERDAY

Simon McGee Home Was Badly Damaged By Blaze Sunday.

The presence of mind of nurses at the Amboy City hospital is solely responsible for the fact that serious damage was not done the building yesterday morning by fire when a gasoline stove exploded at about 6:50. The fire bell was sounded and the members of the department, who were on their way to work, responded at once. Upon arriving at the hospital, it was found that some of the nurses had smothered the flames and closed all doors and windows thereby confining the damage to the one room. The damage which was very slight was confined to the stove and none of the hospital property suffered.

MCGEE HOME DAMAGED.

The Simon McGee residence on Jones street was damaged to the extent of about $700 at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, by a fire which started in the basement near the furnace. The volunteer department responded at once and upon their arrival they found the entire house filled with smoke and they were unable to enter the basement on account of the intense heat and the volume of smoke.

The fire is thought to have started in a pile of kindling near the furnace and had smoldered some time before being discovered. The fire department found it necessary to flood the basement with water in order to extinguish the blaze. Every room in the house was filled with smoke and the damage which is estimated at about $700 is partially covered by insurance. It will be necessary to redecorate all of the rooms in the house.

Mr. Bryant was 36 years of age and previous to his being taken ill, had been in the employ of the Illinois Central. He is survived by his mother, his wife, two children and two sisters, all of Amboy, and one brother, Albert G. Bryant, of Champaign. This is the new residence section recently opened and platted into building lots. As soon as the sewer and water main improvements have been completed, the work of laying the cement curbing will be started, this to be followed by the paving, which will make this section of the city the most desirable of residence locations.

NEW STEEL IN YARDS.

A force of laborers has started work in the Illinois Central yards at the west end of Main street, where the tracks on the main line have been torn up and new ties placed. New steel is also to be laid in some parts of the yard and additional help will be brought to Amboy for this work in a few weeks.

On Saturday morning the women will start out making a house to house canvass selling the tags and in the afternoon and evening every person appearing on the streets of Amboy will be expected to wear a tag and help out this most worthy cause.

THE SHEEP GROWERS' ASS'N.

The office of the county soil advisor is today mailing out letters and circulars to the sheep raisers and wool growers of Lee county. A partial list is on file at the office and an effort is to be made to communicate with every sheep raiser in the county. The purpose of the campaign is to create a co-operative market in Lee county, all of the wool produced in the county to be graded and sold in car load lots. In this manner, the raiser is assured a saving of at least ten cents on the pound of graded wool. Sheep raisers are requested to communicate with the county advisor at once as it is planned to make shipment from some point in the county about the first of June.

PLANTS MANY TREES.

D. T. Fitzpatrick, residing in Marion township near Amboy, is foremost among Lee county farmers to combat with the "blow sand" proposition, a matter which confronts many farmers residing in that particular part of the county. He has planted black locust trees, which are of the clover family, on a large blow sand area on his farm, setting out between four and five thousand of these trees in 1918 and 1919. Almost every one of the trees has taken root and his prospects for a thriving locust forest are very bright.

This particular tree is rapid in its growth and in a few years he will be doubly repaid, the trees making a high grade of fence post. Mr. Fitzpatrick is very proud of a field of sweet clover which he has started in the blow sand area of his farm after one application of lime stone.

COW TESTING ASS'N.

County Advisor L. S. Griffith and his assistant D. E. Warren have been invited to speak at a meeting of the Palmyra Cow Testing association to be held at the R. G. Procter farm on the Sterling road Friday evening. At this time, George A. Fox, secretary of the Illinois Holstein-Friesian cow association will be present and address the members.

NO FEAR OF "TAKE-ALL."

Many farmers throughout Lee county who are raising wheat this season, have become somewhat anxious about their crops with the appearance of what is thought to be, the Australian "take-all" disease. Samples of wheat thought to have been affected have been sent to the state college of agriculture and reports returned. The authorities state that the "take-all" grain disease is prevalent in some of the southern Illinois wheat fields but that Lee county grain growers need not become alarmed. The yellow condition of the wheat leaf is attributed to frost especially in the low areas and a rank growth in wet weather in other fields.

If this is to be your year
get a Maxwell

THERE are untold numbers in America who have felt Old Man Opportunity slap them on the back in the last four months. This is to be their year.

If you be one of them let your mind turn to a larger, more luxurious car—a Maxwell, equipped with every modern device, better looking, better riding.

Give your pride the treat it has looked forward to. Get a self-starting, demountable rim automobile. Get a car that expresses yourself.

A Maxwell costs no more to run or maintain. It gives you many extras in comfort and ease of mind.

Many of the richest men in America drive Maxwells.

They appreciate the 300,000-all-alike idea behind the Maxwell. They know that a chassis which has withstood a manufacturing "run" of 300,000 in 5 years without radical change means a perfection in motor car development.

If your pride could talk it would say:

"Get a Maxwell."

W. R. C. NOTES—

The Woman's Relief Corps held a very interesting meeting Monday afternoon, May 12th, at G. A. R. hall.

One new member was initiated into the membership of the corps at this meeting. Several members, who had been away from Dixon during the winter were present and were welcomed home. Among these were Mrs. Ira Lewis and Mrs. Albertine McKenney.

Mrs. Myra Hodges, an honored member, was present and expects to leave soon for a visit of some length with friends in California.

The secretary read articles pertaining to Memorial Day arrangements from the National and Department presidents. These were adopted as suggested. Among these was that the soldier boys who have recently returned from service in the World War be invited to unite with the corps in showing honor to those who served in the Civil War, at least honoring them with their presence, as the Woman's Relief Corps have pledged their assistance in every way as foster mothers and sisters to the boys who have worn the khaki.

All school children are to participate in decorating the graves and will be well cared for by a committee of ladies from the patriotic orders.

A home cooking sale, in charge of Mrs. Christina Mall, will be held next Saturday throughout the day. The place will be named later.

The corps voted to place a W. R. C. marker on the grave of Miss Ruth Seavey, who gave her young life in the service as a Red Cross nurse, and to decorate her grave each year as well as those of the soldiers who died for the cause.

Two members will be initiated at the next regular meeting, May 26th.

Rev. Luke Stuart, of the Polo Presbyterian church read the service in the presence of two witnesses, Mrs. Luke Stuart and Miss Mary Larkin, of Polo.

Adding to the unusual a party of friends, dressed as ghosts, made their appearance, coming up the hillside in the moonlight just as the ceremony was being performed.

The bride's wedding gown was of taupe silk and a hat in the same shade was also worn.

Mr. Graybill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Graybill, of Polo, and is a clerk in the Polo postoffice. He and his bride will make their home in Polo.

By JANE PHELPS.

NEIL ACCUSES BARBARA OF TAKING THE LETTER.

CHAPTER XXII.

At ten o'clock she excused herself and retired. I sat in the library, pretending to read until half past twelve, and then I too went to my room. It might be three or four o'clock before Neil would be home. I was tired, and in spite of my anxiety I soon fell asleep, and did not waken when Neil came in.

He was up even earlier than usual. I could see that he was not entirely at ease, altho he did his best to disguise the fact. In view of what Frederick had said, and the letter Mrs. Orton had written, I imagined it had something to do with the business of the preceding night; that things had not gone to his satisfaction.

The postman came while we were at breakfast, and immediately left Neil commenced to speak about the slow delivery of city letters. I trembled with apprehension. Was he about to tell of the letter which he should have had the day before? But he said nothing, save in a general way, and once more I breathed freely.

After he left for the office I wandered about the house, too nervous to set myself at anything. All I could think of was the attitude Neil would take when he found no letter from Mrs. Orton was at the office. It was too much to hope that no one had noticed it; it had been too prominently displayed on his desk.

Lorraine Norton came over about eleven, and never was I more delighted to see her. She was full of news, and we gossiped until luncheon which I had persuaded her to take with us. She and aunt got along famously together, and made it quite unnecessary for me to exert myself.

"Shall I tell Neil the truth, that I took that letter, or shall I deny all knowledge of it?" This question was in my mind all day. I hated to tell an untruth, especially to Neil. He might never trust me again should he discover it. That blonde girl at his office—had she noticed the letter particularly? It so she would be sure to tell him; sure to put the blame of its loss upon me. Someway I knew that girl did not like me; did not even respect me because of my actions at the office when Neil was West. Intuitively I felt she would be glad to humiliate me.

"I will tell the truth if he asks me," I said aloud. I was alone in the library. Lorraine had gone, and aunt was dressing for dinner. I had dressed early and hurried down. If Neil came in I preferred to see him alone, always supposing he had missed the letter.

It was only a little after five when I heard his key in the door. I picked up a magazine and tried to act indifferent. Little Robert was sitting on the floor with a picture book.

"Send him away," Neil said sternly. "I wish to talk to you."

I called the nurse and gave Robert to her. Then as innocently as I could I asked:

"What is it, Neil? Anything happened?"

"Yes, something has happened. Why did you take a letter from my desk yesterday?" I was not to have the chance to deny taking it. He knew I had.

"Because I recognized the writing," I spoke in a low voice which I vainly tried to keep steady.

"That it no reason. What did you do with the letter?"

"Here it is." I had kept it about me, not quite daring to destroy it. Neil took the letter from me looked at it, then said in a rage:

"So you opened and read it, did you? You pretended to be so punctilious about what I do, and you stoop to do a thing a servant would not do? I am glad I have found out the sort of wife I have. Talking to me about what I should not do, what is honorable or dishonorable, and you doing something that the lowest kind of a crook looks down upon. Opening and reading a letter not intended for you. No—don't speak! but from this time I absolutely forbid you in my office. I have told the book-keeper and stenographer that you are never to go inside of my private office again. And—"

"You told them that?" scarcely believing.

"I certainly did and emphasized the fact. Another thing don't you even dare find fault with anything I choose to do. I never want to hear you preach to me about business methods, or anything else," as he finished he turned and before I could answer went on up to his room.

I had made him despise me, and had learned nothing. It would be a lesson to me. Little did I know what anguish my foolish act was to cause me.

DO YOUR PART.

Enter into the spirit of Clean-up Week. Do your own part, as any good citizen should. The movement is being carried on under the auspices of the State of Illinois. In every community, from Chicago down to the smallest hamlet, the work is going on this week.
Here in Dixon a group of earnest, unselfish, public spirited workers are giving a great deal of time and energy to the cause. Clean-up Week is for your individual benefit. It is aimed at the causes of pestilence and disease. Its reason is the promotion of health in the community.

Your neighbor is asked to clean up his back yard, remove his accumulations of refuse, burn, bury or otherwise destroy the piles of rubbish, garbage, ashes and other things that provide breeding places for vermin, insects and microbes.
It means fewer flies, fewer mosquitoes, less typhoid, healthier babies, smaller doctor bills, and a number of other things that are worth a tremendous effort to obtain.

You are only being asked to do your share, for your own benefit. Your neighbor's efforts are wasted, however, if you do not clean up your own premises. So Mr. and Mrs. Dixons, look around and see if there is not something you can do toward the improvement of conditions in your own immediate vicinity. Do your part in this good work.

THOSE POOR KRUPP OWNERS.

Owners of the Krupp factory are in a panic. They fear that the new German government will not honor the original orders for big guns. If it does not, the company faces insolvency—so the owners say.

Why not turn the factory to the production of puffed rice, puffed wheat, and other puffed things? We are not technical in the field of puffed products, but we understand they are shot out of gun-like structures with a bang at the finish. The Krupp outfit should do magnificently well at this—and it would help to preserve the tender memories of the bygone use of the great factory.

There is, of course, a serious condition confronting the former 170,000 employees of Krupps. We do not make light of that. However, the demand for labor in Germany will soon greatly outrun the supply.

But the interest of the Krupp owners in any attempt to persuade their government to honor the war contracts for guns can be taken only as a poor German joke—and vastly out of season.

Incidentally it might be noted that the owners of Krupps are the wealthiest Germans in Europe today. They will probably survive.

A Kansas man learned that his wife yearned for another, so he bought her a new suit and took her to the train.

PEACE SUMMARY

Paris advices today indicate brighter prospects for a solution of the Italian problem which is a pressing one now that the peace conference is on the eve of receiving the Austrian delegates.

The Austrian peace delegation is on the way to Paris, some members of the mission being already in France, due to reach Paris tonight, with the chief plenipotentiaries arriving on Wednesday morning. Although it is not believed probable that the Germans will refuse to sign the treaty of peace, presented to them last Wednesday by the allied and associated governments, the entente forces are prepared to advance into Germany if the enemy should reject the terms of the pact, according to a London dispatch.

The wave of opposition in Germany to the signing of the treaty on the terms presented shows no signs of subsiding. Both President Ebert and Chancellor Scheidemann have made statements denouncing terms. Neither of them, however, went so far as to state that Germany would not sign them.

In Chancellor Scheidemann's statement the possibility of a new government taking office in Germany was discussed, but the chancellor declared it was doubtful whether the formation of a government "which would sign the peace terms would be satisfactory to the allies," the implication being that it would be ultra-radical in character.

Meanwhile, the experts of the council of four are examining the notes sent by Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau, head of the German mission, to M. Clemenceau, president of the peace conference, relative to the repatriation of prisoners and the establishment of a new basis for international labor legislation along lines suggested by German experts. A draft of the German plan for a league of nations has been handed to the league of nations commission of the peace conference.

DIXON BOYS MAY ATTEND CAMP

Camp Roosevelt, Near Muskegon, Michigan, Which Will Be Open During July and August is Open to Local High School Boys.

Dixon boys have been invited to take the course in military-physical training to be given during July and August at Camp Roosevelt near Muskegon, Mich. under the direction of Capt. F. L. Beals of the United States Army. It is expected that 15,000 boys, young men and older men will undergo training there this summer.

Camp Roosevelt is intended as a living memorial to the principles of military and physical fitness which the name suggests and it is being established by the Chicago Board of Education with the sanction and support of the war department. Primarily, the camp is intended for the field training of the youths who are members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the Chicago high schools, where more than thirteen thousand boys are receiving military-physical instruction as a part of their high school course. In order to stimulate general interest in military and physical preparedness, however, Camp Roosevelt will be all-American and recruits will be received from all parts of the country. At the executive headquarters of the camp, 21 North LaSalle street, Chicago, applications are steadily coming in from practically every state in the union.

The instruction at Camp Roosevelt will be essentially military, although recreative athletic features will serve to soften the rigor of strictly military program.

There will be training in drill formations, setting up exercises, bayonet practice, trench digging, grenade throwing, marksmanship, ground aviation, tank and motor service signaling, map making and all the kindred details of army life. These instruction classes will be given under the supervision of Captain F. L. Beals as commandant, with the assistance of forty commissioned and non-commissioned officers detailed by the war department for the Camp Roosevelt activities.

As a further co-operative step, the war department will furnish equipment for the camp and the recruits.

Although the camp is primarily for the boy of high school age, it will not be limited to this single group. Boys under twelve years of age will be admitted, and for the younger lads a special course of instruction in scoutcraft and woodlore will be arranged. The next class will be the boys of high school age who will follow out the military regime of army life. Young men who are out of high school and in the beginning years of business will constitute the next class and the fourth class will consist of business men up to forty-five or fifty. No age limit has been placed upon the business man. As long as he can follow out the military program and line up for "chow" three times a day he will be admitted and will be given the full benefit of the training.

The camp will be situated at Lake Harbor, near Muskegon, Mich., one of the best known vacation spots along the lake. Facilities for baseball, rowing, swimming, hiking, tennis and golf are accessible to the camp location and may be enjoyed by those who do not find complete interest and recreation in the intensive training program being outlined by Capt. Beals.

The health of the recruits will be fully safe guarded by a staff of physicians and nurses. Religious environments will be supplied by the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Board and other similar organizations.

The camp will open July 6 and will be conducted in periods of two weeks. No recruit will be accepted for less than two weeks, although enlistments may be made for two, four, six or eight weeks as desired. An enrollment fee of $1.00 will be charged and there will be a daily charge of $1.00 for each recruit for the training, mess privileges and other expenses. Beyond these charges, everything will be free to the recruits. The principal expense of the camp is being borne by a group of patriotic Chicago business men who are interested in giving the Chicago plan of military-physical training a thorough trial with the hope that other cities now investigating will adopt the plan and thus give the nation the basis for a constant supply of officer material in case such material should be needed in the future.

produced. It is expected that one of the most important results of the week will be a material betterment in the milk supply of Illinois cities and communities, which will show itself in a decrease of illness, particularly among babies, during the coming summer and in a distinctly lower infant mortality.

In times past, health departments interested themselves in the supervision of milk supplies for the purpose of securing an honest commercial milk. Considerable attention was devoted to the amount of butter fat and the amount of total solids the milk contained, and dairymen prided themselves upon the richness of their product. A number of years ago, Dr. L. Emmett Holt, whose name is familiar to most of the intelligent mothers of the nation, gave forth the rather startling dictum that "the amount of cream a milk contained was of no importance whatever as compared to the amount of moisture it contained." For it was found that, with the filthy dairy methods of that time, average commercial milk had suspended in it not only ordinary dust and dirt, but filth of such character that it was necessarily prejudicial to health.

The intelligent dairymen, at the present time, are concerning themselves particularly with the cleanliness of their product and they have accepted it as an axiom that clean milk cannot be produced from dirty cows, by dirty dairymen, or in dirty surroundings.

A few dairies throughout the country have developed the art of handling their product to such a point that the milk is produced in absolutely clean condition, but the precautions necessary to furnish such a milk are exceedingly expensive in time and labor and equipment, so that so-called "certified milk" cannot be sold at ordinary market prices.

The milk which is produced under ordinarily clean dairy conditions will necessarily contain some impurities and many bacteria, and for this reason it should be invariably pasteurized before being used. Pasteurization consists in bringing the milk to a relatively high temperature and then quickly cooling it, with a result that most of the living organisms or bacteria are destroyed.

The British Medical Journal once stated that if the facts about dairies of the nation could be honestly told, the story would disclose conditions quite as revolting as those of the packing houses described in Upton Sinclair's sensational book, "The Jungle." Whether this be true or not, there is ample room for improvement in the milk supply of Illinois and it is profoundly to be hoped that Health Promotion Week will afford the incentive which will prompt Health Officers and citizens alike to demand this improvement.

Brutal Peace, He Says.
"Certain circles in England and France are beginning to advise the necessity of common sense. It is too comic when President Wilson's 14 points are contrasted with the peace terms. They do not mention Mr. Wilson's terms but are just a brutal dictated peace."

"It is possible a government might be formed which would sign the peace terms but it is doubtful whether the allies would be satisfied with such a government. A reactionary government is out of all question and a communist and independent government would be acting for the people of whom they would represent only a small minority. Even if such a government did sign the treaty it would be just as impossible for them to fulfill the conditions as it would be for us."

MINISTRY CONSIDERS TERMS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Monday, May 12.—(Delayed)—The imperial ministry met today to discuss the peace terms but no possible proposals have as yet been communicated to the entente. Practical questions and considerations relating to territorial cessions which were transmitted to M. Clemenceau, president of the peace conference, today by the German delegation were said to be not of fundamental importance but of an explanatory character.

It is reported that the German democratic and centrist parties have threatened to withdraw their representatives from the government if the treaty is signed. The Neue Freie Presse of Vienna declares that Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace mission at Versailles has informed its representative that he is making every effort to secure the union of German Austria with Germany.

BRIDGE FLOOR TO BE GIVEN CLEANING

The city authorities have become enthusiastic over "Clean-up Week" and Commissioner George Campbell, who has the Galena avenue bridge under his jurisdiction, announced today that he has taken steps to have the bridge floor cleaned.

Commissioner Campbell's announcement will be received with welcome by many Dixon people, especially north-siders and all persons who have occasion to use the bridge often. At present the bridge floor is in an extremely dirty and unsanitary condition and every gust of wind or passing vehicle raises a cloud of filthy dirt, spraying it over pedestrians on the bridge and persons in other cars.

The clean-up of the bridge will be anxiously awaited by a large number of people and the city officials responsible for the cleanup will thereby greatly increase their popularity.

Bolsheviki Seek to Destroy Religion By Breeding Contempt

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, May 5.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—In the Caucasus, as elsewhere in Russia, the bolsheviks are seeking to destroy religion by bringing it into contempt. According to a message from Reuter's correspondent at Ekaterinodar, they conducted in a church with all ceremonial a mock marriage between an aged priest and a mare. The choir was forced, under threats of death, to sing the Psalms and Canticles of the liturgy.

Among the official publications of the Moscow soviet is a parody in verse of the church funeral service, supposed to be performed over the body of a dog. The Moscow soviet also has issued a pamphlet depicting the supposed orgies of priests. These productions are being sent out in hundreds of thousands as bolshevik propaganda.

In another church in the North Caucasus a bayonet was thrust through an ikon in such a way as to bore a hole in the mouth of Christ, and a cigaret was put in the hole. Below were scribbled some odious words.

A Moscow dispatch says that the bolshevik leaders, in order to shake the faith of the masses, have caused the exhumation of the bones of Saint Tikhon and Saint Mitrofan.

There is said to be a growing movement among the religious elements in Russia to bring about a protest of all churches of the world against the bolshevik violations of religion. The metropolitan of Odessa may go abroad soon on behalf of the project.

New Wheat Disease Will Not Cut Yield

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, May 13.—Although the two wheat diseases recently discovered in Madison county, Illinois and which previously were unknown in this country, may cause heavy losses to individual farmers, the losses in the area affected will have no appreciable effect upon the total production of this year's wheat crop said a statement issued today by the department of agriculture.

The first of the two diseases, said the statement, apparently is identical with the "take all" or "white heads" known in many foreign countries. The second is flag smut of wheat. As both pests are extensively known in Australia, federal experts sent to Madison county are of the opinion the diseases were brought to this country in seed shipped from Australia. As a result a nation wide survey now is in progress to find if either or both of the diseases have been introduced anywhere else in the United States. All grain growers have been urged to help their state experiment stations and the federal authorities in this work and thereby aid in preventing the spread of pests which have had such serious effects in Australia.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Through the kindness of Mrs. Edward Nosworthy the following interesting letter from her niece, Miss Anna Nosworthy, who is well known here is given below:

Coblentz, Germany, April 19, 1919.

Dear Aunt Ella: It's a long time since I have written you but will try to make up for it by writing you a real long one. Just think the last letter I had from you was way back in October before the armistice was signed. What a lot has happened since then and how long ago it seems.

This day before Thanksgiving I went to bed with pleurisy and kept on coughing till I thought I'd tear my side right out. It got better after about ten days in bed and Major White sent me down to southern France on the Mediterranean to a place called Cannes for a sick leave. It just seemed to clear my cough up the minute I got down into the wonderful land of sunshine and flowers. I felt that I was very fortunate to get three weeks in that wonderful climate by the sea. There was a sandy beach and I use to just wallow in the sand and bask in the sunshine. It was the most wonderful place I've ever been in; a regular paradise in fact. I could be happy down there the rest of my life.

I left our Base on the seventh of December, stayed one night in Lyons, the second largest city in France, and the next night in Marseilles. The next one found me in Nice which is very beautiful, but I didn't care as much about it as I did Cannes because that is where I spent most of my time. After I had rested well for about a week, began taking automobile trips and went sailing and danced and in fact did everything I wanted to do, even to climbing mountains.

We used to have picnics over on the islands, one called St. Margaret and one St. Honorat, which were about an eight kilometer sail from Cannes. On St. Margaret there is an old fortress on which "The Man of the Iron Mask" was imprisoned for many years. On St. Honorat there is a fine old monastery and while we mere women couldn't enter the island itself was so beautiful with its long aisles of evergreen trees that you felt as though were in a church. The men of our party were always allowed to enter and they would come out and tell us about the fine old paintings that they saw and the fine vine the monks made, etc., I have pictures of these places which I will show you sometimes.

The day before Christmas was a beautiful day and I went on a motor trip from Cannes to Nice, Monte Carlo, and Mentone—the last place is the last town before one comes to the frontier of Italy. This place is quite picturesque and there is a great chateau over which there is a high bridge with an imaginary line in the middle of it. We were not allowed to go any farther, of course, but oh, how I did want to just go to the first Italian town. It is the most colorful place imaginable on a bright sunny day such as that was. The sea is the deepest blue and the villas along the sea look as though they were carved out of white marble and hanging on the bare edge of nothing. Roses and wild geraniums of all colors were growing in profusion and hanging over walls everywhere.

Christmas day was the most unusual one I ever put in. You see I've never been a warm climate before at Christmas, so it didn't seem much like the day of all days in the year when you long to be with the people you love. I was so lonesome that I nearly died. Sat down in the sand and wrote letters most of the day. The people at our hotel tried to make things as pleasant and Christmassy as possible for us but the big Christmas tree in the dining room only made me realize how terribly far away from home I was. I kept wondering just what you all were doing all day and especially Bertha and Donald. In the evening I went to a big dance given at the Y. M. C. A. casino for the enlisted men and had such a good time with the boys I forgot my lonesomeness. That was the only day out of all the three weeks I was down there though when I felt blue, for the sunshine wouldn't permit of one's staying that way very long.

We left there on the twenty-ninth of December and went to Paris where we spent two days. It rained all the time we were in Paris and I didn't think I was ever going to like Paris, but I feel differently about it since I've been there again lately. Returned to our Base on the night of the first of January to more rain. I only worked one week until our Base was evacuated and we sat around for several weeks doing nothing, so I got it into my head that I wanted to transfer to something else and come to Germany if possible. Our chief nurse didn't think it advisable for I was still having some trouble with my side and coughing a little but finally she gave her consent and I transferred to Base 97 at our same centre at Allerey and was with that organization only about two weeks when the call came for volunteers to go to Germany. I thought it couldn't be worse than France where it was raining all the

DO NOT BE TROUBLED BY BIG SHOE BILLS

Fifteen months of service from a pair of Neolin Soles is claimed by F. T. Evans of Seattle, Washington. "Then I had them half-soled and they are still good," says Mr. Evans.

Big shoe bills do not trouble the man who gets wear like this from his shoes. If you are interested in cutting down your shoe expense, be sure that the shoes you buy have Neolin Soles.

You can get them on new shoes in many styles for men, women, and children; and they are available everywhere for re-soles, too.

Neolin Soles are made by Science to give long wear, and to be comfortable and waterproof. They are manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also manufacture Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

England Plans Big Peace Demonstration

London, May 3.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Huge pyrotechnic displays are to be the chief feature of England's celebration of peace. In addition to chains of bonfires on hills and heights, civic authorities throughout the country are arranging brilliant spectacles of fireworks and the demand for fireworks for private suburban displays is already greater than the manufacturers can supply.

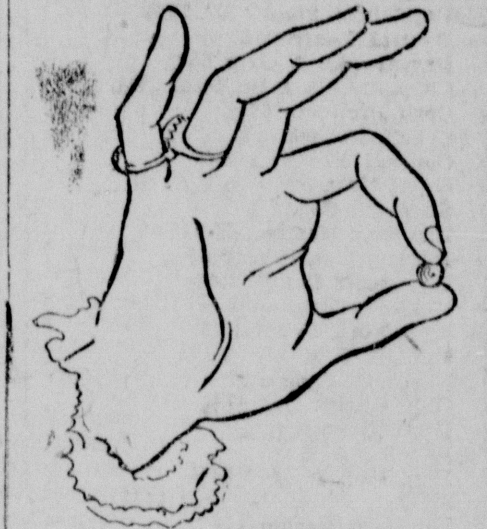

The police of the country, especially the London department, are strongly encouraging the fireworks plan as against an aimless wandering about the streets of masses of people in holiday mood as during the armistice celebration week. The problem of crowds is a serious one in London. To prevent congestion of the streets it is proposed to have five or six pyrotechnic exhibitions in parks in various parts of the city making all the displays of similar interest so that people will remain in their own districts.

Giant Bonfires Planned
The scheme of the committees in charge of the celebration is to produce illuminations which could be seen from long distances. The giant bonfires flares

One new kind gives out a light of a peculiar penetrating quality. It is so brilliant that when it was given a demonstration recently before a government committee, a fire brigade a mile away thought there was a big conflagration and rushed to the scene.

Nervousness and Headaches Caused by Acid-Stomach

There is a much closer connection between the stomach and brain than most people imagine. It is because of this close connection that indigestion, belching, sour, gassy stomach and other stomach miseries—all of which are signs of acid stomach—are so often followed by severe attacks of blinding, splitting headaches.

Nervousness, sleeplessness, irritability, mental depression, melancholia and many other disorders which affect the brain can also nearly always be traced to the same source—acid-stomach.

So often you hear people say "I am so nervous I think I'll fly to pieces," or "It seems I never get a good night's sleep any more, my nerves are all on edge." Little do they dream that acid stomach is the direct cause of their troubles because very often there are no pains in the stomach at all. So you see, you can't always judge an acid-stomach condition by the way your stomach, itself, feels.

If you are weak, nervous, unfit—if you are not up to your old time form—if you lack your accustomed enthusiasm, energy and pep—make this test and see if it isn't acid-stomach that is holding you back—robbing you of your health, strength and vigor. Get a big box of EATONIC—the wonderful modern medicine that so quickly puts an acid stomach to rights. It is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets that you eat like a bit of candy. EATONIC rids the stomach of excess acid. Brings instant relief from indigestion, heartburn, sour belching, food repelling, bloated and gas and makes the stomach cool, pure, sweet and comfortable.

Dentists warn us against the bad effects of acid mouth, pointing out that the acid eats through the enamel of the teeth, causing them to decay. You can easily imagine then the amount of damage excess acid will cause to the delicate organization of the stomach!

Thousands of people are using EATONIC and the results obtained are so remarkable as to be almost unbelievable. Yet their letters of gratitude, many of which are received daily, prove absolutely that EATONIC does all and even more than we claim. The medical profession, too, recognizes the great value of this wonderful remedy. A learned Michigan doctor wrote recently: "I have had such wonderful success with EATONIC that I want every one to know how quickly it will neutralize the acidity of the stomach (acid-stomach) and the stomach will soon be sweet and normal again, and the sick man well and happy once more."

So be sure to get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. If it fails in any way to give you the kind of satisfaction you want, take it back—he will refund your money. He doesn't want one penny of your money unless EATONIC helps you.

Two More Aviation Parties Arrive at Newfoundland City

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. John's N. F., May 13.—Two aviation parties contemplating a trans-Atlantic flight in planes of British make arrived here today. While Hawker and Raynham, the pioneer flyers have studied weather charts which indicated conditions today of the unfavorable conditions which have held them land bound for more than a month. Captain U. S. Bennett began an inspection of a possible site for the Bolton and Paul three seater, while Captain A. A. Alcott and A. W. Brown conducted negotiations for the housing of their Vimy machine.

It was thought probable that the Britishers, whose planes were expected in time for a flight in June would use the ground to be vacated by Hawker and Raynham.

In anticipation of the American navy's possible attempt to negotiate the ocean voyage in a lighter than air craft—the dirigible C-5—a landing party from the cruiser Chicago today completed preparations for the coming of the balloon from Montauk Point, N. Y. Its start was not expected before Thursday or Friday.

BEARS CONTROL
CORN AS HEAVY SELLING COMES

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, May 13.—Heavy selling by a big commission house did a good deal today to put bears again in control of the corn market. Dry weather where most needed tended further to depress values. Besides eastern shipping demand was poor. Opening prices, which ranged from 1½c to 2½c lower with July 1.66½ to 1.67½ and Sept. 1.57½ to 1.59 were followed by material setbacks in addition.

Favorable crop reports weakened oats. After opening unchanged to ½c down with July 68½ to 68½c the market continued to sag.

Provisions were dull and heavy. The chief factor was corn weakness.

Rallies were numerous but all transient. The close was weak 2½c to 4½c net lower with July 1.64½ to 1.64½ and Sept. 1.56½ to 1.56½.
